Psalm 27
Pastor Matt Kehler

ICE BREAKER QUESTION:

What are some of your biggest, most obvious fears?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He's done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in these verses or from Sunday's sermon?
- 2) What type of opposition and trouble was David experiencing in these verses? How was he able to say "yet will I be confident"?

HEART

These questions will be geared towards shaping our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) Read verses 7-10. David is describing feelings of loneliness and isolation. How has increased isolation affected you this season? How does David's desperation for God encourage you?
- 4) David ends his psalm by "Preaching to his heart". What truth/s from this passage do you need to preach to your heart during this season?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change the way that we live.

- 5) What is one thing that you are going to do after studying this passage? Is there a promise to claim, a pattern of thinking to change, or a situation to entrust into God's care? Invite the work of the Holy Spirit into your life this week as you yield to Him.
