1 Peter 1:10-12
Pastor Nate Holdridge

ICE BREAKER QUESTION:

How many times did you hear about the gospel before responding and giving your life to Christ?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He's done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in this section of scripture or from Sunday's sermon?
- 2) What is Peter's goal in pointing his readers to the prophets of the Old Testament and their role in proclaiming "this salvation"? What does he mean by "things into which angels long to look"?

HEART

These questions will be geared towards shaping our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) Peter helps us recognize how incredibly privileged we are for the salvation we have received. How often do you consider the amazing gift your salvation is? How does being the target of God's affection help you in the midst of trying times?
- 4) Pastor Nate shared with us three ways we can apply these truths to our lives. We should rejoice in our great salvation, pursue unity around the gospel, and continue to learn more deeply the implications of our salvation. Which area is most challenging for you to apply and why?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change the way that we live.

- 5) What is one thing that you are going to do after studying this passage? Is there a promise to claim, a pattern of thinking to change, or a situation to entrust into God's care? Invite the work of the Holy Spirit into your life this week as you yield to Him.
