Mark 5:21-43

Pastor Nate Holdridge

ICE BREAKER QUESTION:

Are you generally “on time” or “running late”?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He’s done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in these verses or from Sunday’s sermon?
- 2) What does this encounter teach us about Jesus? Who can you relate to most (the woman, Jairus, the mourners, etc.) and why?

HEART

These questions will be geared towards shaping our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) Was there ever a time that you were desperate for the Lord to work in your life in a specific way and He delayed? How did you respond to His delay? What did you learn through that experience?
- 4) What do you do when you don’t know what God is up to in your life (try to figure it out, seek counsel, move on without Him, etc.)? How does this passage encourage you to trust the Lord even when it appears He is delaying?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change the way that we live.

5) What is one thing that you are going to do after studying this passage? Is there a promise to claim, a pattern of thinking to change, or a situation to entrust into God's care? Invite the work of the Holy Spirit into your life this week as you yield to Him.
