Mark 10:32-52
Pastor Nate Holdridge

ICE BREAKER QUESTION:

What is the longest journey you've ever been on and what was most significant about that journey for you?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He's done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in these verses or from Sunday's sermon?
- 2) What do you see in this passage that Christ did to honor His Father and fulfill his mission, leading up to the cross? What was significant about the things he did on this journey?

HEART

These questions will be geared towards shaping our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) Jesus was steadfast in His journey to the cross. How does his faithfulness toward you produce gratefulness in your heart? In what way(s) have you seen Jesus' enduring pursuit for you unfold in your life?
- 4) James and John made an outlandish request of Jesus, yet He responded by claiming it as a teachable moment. What can we learn about the requests we make of God through this story? How can we prepare our hearts in order to engage with God and His mission through prayer?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change the way that we live.

5) Jesus came to serve, not to be served, and is calling us to this life of service as well (v.43-45). How do you believe God has gifted and equipped you to serve in His kingdom? How are you currently serving or how do you want to serve in the future?

6) What is one thing that you are going to do after studying this passage? Is there a promise to claim, a pattern of thinking to change, or a situation to entrust into God's care? Invite the work of the Holy Spirit into your life this week as you yield to Him.
