Mark 3:1-6

Pastor Nate Holdridge

Note: As followers of Jesus we want our entire lives to be transformed by His Spirit: our head (what we think), our hearts (what we trust and put our hope in), and our hands (our deeds and actions). In light of this, we have structured the questions to touch on each of these areas of our lives. Pray and ask God to give you an open heart and mind to apply the truth of His Word to your life.

ICE BREAKER QUESTION:

Did your family have any fun traditions growing up?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He's done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in these verses or from Sunday's sermon?
- 2) Why was Jesus angry with the Pharisees in this passage?

HEART

These questions will be geared towards shaping our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) Pastor Nate shared that this passage teaches us that "God is compelled to do good". Do you ever doubt the goodness of God in your life? How does this passage encourage you to trust in His goodness? What other scriptures increase your trust in the goodness of God?
- 4) Read I Peter 2:5-9. What does it mean that you are a "Royal Priesthood"? How can you live out your calling as a "priest" during this season?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change the way that we live.

5) In light of this passage, is there a specific action the Holy Spirit is calling you to this week? Whether it's a thought that you need God to help you take captive or an action that you need courage to step out in, God is ready and willing to meet us in this season and provide strength to obey Him.
